

Jenn Kozniewski

Jenn Kozniewski is the current Director of Educational and Information Technology for North Haven Public Schools. She additionally has been fulfilling the role of Health and Safety Liaison for the district for the duration of the pandemic. Prior to supporting K-12 environments, she got her start in education technology support by working as a help desk technician in higher education. Originally from Massachusetts, Jenn is an avid reader and archer. She lives in Wolcott with her husband, son, and cat.